

The Washington Post

Korean War

- June 26, 1950* “Korean Reds repulsed at some points; U.N. asks cease fire; U.S. studies crisis”
- June 27, 1950* “North Korean forces sweep into Seoul; U.S. fighter shoots down Red plane”
- June 28, 1950* “U.S. planes and war fleet join battle for Korea”
- June 29, 1950* “U.S. combat troops alerted for action in Korea”
- July 1, 1950* “24th Division troops landing in Korea”
- July 2, 1950* “Yanks pouring into line against Reds; Enemy stalled on plains below Seoul”
- July 3, 1950* “Three Red spearheads smashing south in Korea”
- July 4, 1950* “U.S. rushes marines, carrier forces, B-29s to Korea”
- July 5, 1950* “Yanks speed to block Red trap in Korea”
- July 6, 1950* “Reds wipe out Yank outpost in Korea; U.S. may call up 40 reserve battalions”
- July 7, 1950* “Korea defenders, driven back, regroup to resist new attack”
- July 10, 1950* “Americans halt drive below Chonan; Air and artillery support stepped up”
- July 12, 1950* “U.S. air cripples Red Korean columns that drove Yanks close to Kum river”
- July 14, 1950* “Reds halted on Kum and on Yank flank”
- July 16, 1950* “Yanks check Reds’ drive over the Kum; GIs will hold Korea, army chief says”
- July 17, 1950* “Reds pour through hole in U.S. lines; Yanks retreat on Taejon under fire”
- July 21, 1950* “Taejon lost, Yanks fall back 4 miles”
- July 22, 1950* “Yechon recaptured by Yanks in first aggressive victory; Hill southeast of Taejon held”
- July 24, 1950* “Yanks crush Reds’ armored spearhead”
- July 25, 1950* “Reds attack Yanks on all sides near Yongdong”
- July 27, 1950* “Reds retreating north of Hamchang; Jet pilots help GIs to retake Hadong”
- July 29, 1950* “Yanks counterattack; Regain ground; Repair line break in savage struggle”

The Washington Post

July 30, 1950	“Yanks girding for a hold-or-die stand, abandon key town on road to Pusan”
August 1, 1950	“Four Guard Divisions to be mobilized; More Yanks land as Red drives gain”
August 2, 1950	“Malik, beaten in U.N., calls U.S. aggressor; Fresh Yanks counterattacking for Chinju”
August 3, 1950	“Marines moving into flaming battle; 100,000 Reds in great drive at Pusan”
August 4, 1950	“Double battle near; Reds shell U.S. line”
August 7, 1950	“Offensive launched on southern front by marines, two army combat teams”
August 8, 1950	“U.S. drive on Chinju gains four miles; More Reds cross river at two points”
August 10, 1950	“Trap closing on Reds before Chinju; Enemy retakes Yongdok, nears Pohang”
August 13, 1950	“Fresh GIs, tanks attack Korean Reds trying to trap Yanks along Naktong”
August 14, 1950	“Yanks counterattack at Naktong bulge in move to blunt ‘biggest’ Red offensive”
August 15, 1950	“1000 Reds make new Naktong crossing; 24th pressing attack for second day”
August 17, 1950	“24th and marines hit hard at foe in ‘bulge’”
August 18, 1950	“Civilians are ordered to leave Taegu; Reds drive near, begin shelling city”
August 21, 1950	“U.N. forces crush 30,000 Red troops; Air strikes stall foe’s assault on Taegu”
September 8, 1950	“Allies stall enemy’s offensive in north; Yanks regain lost southern territory”
September 16, 1950	“Yanks driving for Seoul to close gap on Reds”
September 17, 1950	“Allies capture air base, enter Seoul; Southern attacks gain several miles”
September 18, 1950	“7th Division GIs pour ashore at Inchon; Marines prepare to span river at Seoul”
September 19, 1950	“Marines battle through Seoul suburb; Yanks across Naktong at two points”
September 22, 1950	“Enemy battles fiercely to save Seoul as marines drive ahead in 2 columns”
September 25, 1950	“GIs cross Han, join marines in Seoul; North-south gap narrowed to 60 miles”
September 27, 1950	“Big Red army caught in trap as Allied forces are linked; Battling goes on inside Seoul”
September 28, 1950	“Reds flee from Seoul as Allies push mop-up of foe’s broken army”
October 1, 1950	“South Koreans reported across 38th Parallel, driving northward through enemy territory”
October 10, 1950	“Allies battle Reds in streets of Wonsan”

The Washington Post

October 12, 1950	“Eighth Army smashes 12 miles into No. Korea; Allies capture defense triangle of 3 towns”
October 28, 1950	“Chinese Reds battling Allies; 40,000 reported in No. Korea, resistance by foe is bitter”
November 24, 1950	“‘End the war’ offensive begun; M’Arthur on hand to direct it”
November 25, 1950	“Allied drive captures Chongju; Three prongs head for border”
November 28, 1950	“Chinese Reds smash at Allied flank, threatening U.N. force of 110,000 men”
November 30, 1950	“Allied army fighting for life against China Reds”
December 3, 1950	“Twin traps peril Allied troops in East, West”
December 4, 1950	“B-26s to blast escape path for marines”
December 11, 1950	“GIs streaming to coast after breakout; Marines losses ‘heavier than Tarawa’”
January 4, 1951	“Allies quit Seoul; Trap is threatened”
February 15, 1951	“Chinese Reds lose 10,228 in day’s battle”
March 4, 1951	“Marines strike near major Chinese base; Red Division shattered”
April 12, 1951	“Goal is to confine war to Korea, Truman says”
April 23, 1951	“Reds open big attack, crack U.N. line”
May 20, 1951	“Reds halted on Seoul, central fronts; Second Division wipes out 35,000 men”
May 24, 1951	“Yanks lunge northward, pounding retreating foe”
June 24, 1951	“Soviet calls for Parley on Korean truce; U.S. gives wily reply: ‘We are ready’”
July 27, 1951	“Agenda settled, Armistice talks begin”
November 29, 1951	“U.N., Red ground troops hold their fire”
December 3, 1951	“Reds lose 5 Jets in 200-plane fight”
October 11, 1952	“16,000 fresh troops rushed up by Reds”
October 31, 1952	“Allies lose ground in Korea”
November 3, 1952	“Reds blast Allies off Triangle”
December 15, 1952	“Eisenhower warns of difficult tasks, but hopes to speed solution in Korea”
December 29, 1952	“200 planes raze Red troop area”

The Washington Post

March 31, 1953	“U.S. to study Red POW offer”
April 20, 1953	“Ailing POW exchange is begun; 30 Americans in today’s group”
June 8, 1953	“Ike indicates truce is imminent, urges Rhee to accept its terms”
June 18, 1953	“S. Korea frees war prisoners”
July 17, 1953	“Allies drive into Red bulge”
July 27, 1953	“Truce in Korea; 3-year war is concluded as Allies, Reds sign Pact”